

Tornado siren tests to begin Monday

ALBION — Albion Fire Chief Brad Rollins has announced that spring testing of the town's tornado sirens will begin Monday.

The tests will be run at some point from 6-7 p.m. on the second and fourth Mondays each month during tornado season.

Rollins said the tests will not be held if the weather is threatening.